Reminder: Do Not Include Social Security Numbers on Publicly Disclosed Forms

Documents subject to disclosure include supporting documents filed with the form, and correspondence with the IRS about the filing.

Changes for Parts IX and X

Changes to Parts IX and X are necessary to comply with new regulations that eliminated the advance ruling process. Until Form 1023 is revised to reflect this change, please follow the directions on this notice when completing Part IX and Part X of Form 1023. For more information about the elimination of the advance ruling process, visit us at IRS.gov. In the top right "Search" box, type "Elimination of the Advance Ruling Process" (exactly as written) and select "Search."

Part IX. Financial Data

The instructions at the top of Part IX on page 9 of Form 1023 are now as follows. For purposes of this schedule, years in existence refer to completed tax years.

1. If in existence less than 5 years, complete the statement for each year in existence and provide projections of your likely revenues and expenses based on a reasonable and good faith estimate of your future finances for a total of:
 - a. Three years of financial information if you have not completed one tax year, or
 - b. Four years of financial information if you have completed one tax year.

2. If in existence 5 or more years, complete the schedule for the most recent 5 tax years. You will need to provide a separate statement that includes information about the most recent 5 tax years because the data table in Part IX has not been updated to provide for a 5th year.

Part X. Public Charity Status

Do not complete line 6a on page 11 of Form 1023, and do not sign the form under the heading “Consent Fixing Period of Limitations Upon Assessment of Tax Under Section 4940 of the Internal Revenue Code.”

Only complete line 6b and line 7 on page 11 of Form 1023, if in existence 5 or more tax years.

Part XI. Increase in User Fees

User fee increases are effective for all applications post marked after January 3, 2010.

1. $400 for organizations whose gross receipts do not exceed $10,000 or less annually over a 4-year period.
2. $850 for organizations whose gross receipts exceed $10,000 annually over a 4-year period.

For the current user fee amounts, go to IRS.gov and in the “Search” box type “Where Is My Exemption Application,” click on the link for that page, and in the second paragraph click on “user fee.” Alternatively, you can do a search for “user fees” with the applicable year in the “Search” box in the top right. Finally, you can also call 1-877-829-5500.

Application for reinstatement and retroactive reinstatement. After your organization’s tax-exempt status was automatically revoked for failing to file a return or notice for three consecutive years, your organization must apply to have its tax-exempt status reinstated. You must file a Form 1023 if applying under section 501(c)(3) or Form 1024 if applying under a different Code section, pay the appropriate user fee, and write “Automatically Revoked” at the top of your application and the mailing envelope. If approved, the date of reinstatement will be the date of the application. See Notice 2011-44, 2011-25 I.R.B. 883, at http://www.irs.gov/irb/2011-25_IRB/ar10.html, for details.

Transitional relief scheduled to end December 31, 2012. Smaller organizations — defined as having annual gross receipts of $50,000 or less, in its most recently completed tax year — that have lost their tax-exempt status because of failure to file a required electronic notice (Form 990-N e-Postcard) may be eligible for transitional relief, including retroactive reinstatement and a reduced user fee of $100. See Notice 2011-43, 2011-25 I.R.B. 882, at http://www.irs.gov/irb/2011-25_IRB/ar09.html, for details.

Changes for the Instructions for Form 1023

- Change to Part III. Required Provisions in Your Organizing Documents
- Clarification to Appendix A. Sample Conflict of Interest Policy

Changes to Instructions for Form 1023, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (Rev. June 2006)

Part III. Required Provisions in Your Organizing Document

Changes are necessary to comply with Rev. Proc. 82-2, 1982-1 C.B. 367, to incorporate the state of New York as jurisdiction that complies with the cy pres doctrine to keep a charitable testamentary trust from failing the requirement for a dissolution clause under Regulation sections 1.501(c)(3)-1(b)(4), when the language of the trust instrument demonstrates a general intent to benefit charity. Therefore, the instructions on page 8, line 2c, after the third paragraph now includes the state of New York in the state listing as an authorized state. Since the state of New York allows testamentary charitable trusts formed in that state and the language in the trust instruments provides for a general intent to benefit charity, you do not need a specific provision in your trust agreement or declaration of trust providing for the distribution of assets upon dissolution.

Appendix A. Sample Conflict of Interest Policy

Appendix A, Sample Conflict of Interest Policy, is only intended to provide an example of a conflict of interest policy for organizations. The sample conflict of interest policy does not prescribe any specific requirements. Therefore, organizations should use a conflict of interest policy that best fits their organization.

Part X Public Charity Status

Part X is designed to classify you as an organization that is either a private foundation or a public charity. Public charity status is a more favorable tax status than private foundation status. If you are a private foundation, Part X is designed to further determine whether you are a private operating foundation. (See instructions.)

- 1a Are you a private foundation? If "Yes," go to line 1b. If "No," go to line 5 and proceed as instructed. ☐ Yes ☒ No
If you are unsure, see the instructions.
- b As a private foundation, section 508(e) requires special provisions in your organizing document in addition to those that apply to all organizations described in section 501(c)(3). Check the box to confirm that your organizing document meets this requirement, whether by express provision or by reliance on operation of state law. Attach a statement that describes specifically where your organizing document meets this requirement, such as a reference to a particular article or section in your organizing document or by operation of state law. See the instructions, including Appendix B, for information about the special provisions that need to be contained in your organizing document. Go to line 2. ☐
- 2 Are you a private operating foundation? To be a private operating foundation you must engage directly in the active conduct of charitable, religious, educational, and similar activities, as opposed to indirectly carrying out these activities by providing grants to individuals or other organizations. If "Yes," go to line 3. If "No," go to the signature section of Part XI. ☐ Yes ☐ No
- 3 Have you existed for one or more years? If "Yes," attach financial information showing that you are a private operating foundation; go to the signature section of Part XI. If "No," continue to line 4. ☐ Yes ☐ No
- 4 Have you attached either (1) an affidavit or opinion of counsel, (including a written affidavit or opinion from a certified public accountant or accounting firm with expertise regarding this tax law matter), that sets forth facts concerning your operations and support to demonstrate that you are likely to satisfy the requirements to be classified as a private operating foundation; or (2) a statement describing your proposed operations as a private operating foundation? ☐ Yes ☐ No
- 5 If you answered "No" to line 1a, indicate the type of public charity status you are requesting by checking one of the choices below. You may check only one box.
The organization is not a private foundation because it is:
- a 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i)—a church or a convention or association of churches. Complete and attach Schedule A. ☐
- b 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii)—a school. Complete and attach Schedule B. ☐
- c 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iii)—a hospital, a cooperative hospital service organization, or a medical research organization operated in conjunction with a hospital. Complete and attach Schedule C. ☐

Part X Public Charity Status (Continued)

- e 509(a)(4)—an organization organized and operated exclusively for testing for public safety. ☐
- f 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iv)—an organization operated for the benefit of a college or university that is owned or operated by a governmental unit. ☐
- g 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi)—an organization that receives a substantial part of its financial support in the form of contributions from publicly supported organizations, from a governmental unit, or from the general public. ☒
- h 509(a)(2)—an organization that normally receives not more than one-third of its financial support from gross investment income and receives more than one-third of its financial support from contributions, membership fees, and gross receipts from activities related to its exempt functions (subject to certain exceptions). ☐
- i A publicly supported organization, but unsure if it is described in 5g or 5h. The organization would like the IRS to decide the correct status. ☐

6 If you checked box g, h, or i in question 5 above, you must request either an advance or a definitive ruling by selecting one of the boxes below. Refer to the instructions to determine which type of ruling you are eligible to receive.

- a Request for Advance Ruling: By checking this box and signing the consent, pursuant to section 6501(c)(4) of the Code you request an advance ruling and agree to extend the statute of limitations on the assessment of excise tax under section 4940 of the Code. The tax will apply only if you do not establish public support status at the end of the 5-year advance ruling period. The assessment period will be extended for the 5 advance ruling years to 8 years, 4 months, and 15 days beyond the end of the first year. You have the right to refuse or limit the extension to a mutually agreed-upon period of time or issue(s). Publication 1035, Extending the Tax Assessment Period, provides a more detailed explanation of your rights and the consequences of the choices you make. You may obtain Publication 1035 free of charge from the IRS web site at www.irs.gov or by calling toll-free 1-800-829-3676. Signing this consent will not deprive you of any appeal rights to which you would otherwise be entitled. The Sheridan Story - Attachment to Form 1023

• Part IV - Narrative Description of Your Activities:

The Sheridan Story was formed and exists exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. Specifically, The Sheridan Story partners with the community to provide a bag of non-perishable food on Fridays to children living in food insecurity for them to take home for the weekend. The food is provided to the children at no cost and with no expectations or requirements from them or their families to be able to participate in the program other than a permission slip signed by their guardian.

The Sheridan Story is a network-based program that plays two roles in fighting weekend child hunger. Our first role is to facilitate the formation of partnerships between the community and schools, which results in funding and volunteers. Funding is from individuals, non-profit organizations, religious institutions, for-profit corporations, and private foundations (590(a)(1)).

For the 2012-2013 school year, The Sheridan Story formed two community-to-school partnerships. Every Friday, these partnerships provided a total of 1155 pounds of non-perishable food to about 350 children who are living in food insecurity in order to eliminate the meal gap that they face on Saturday and Sunday. The Sheridan Story is in the process of forming 5 more community-to-school partnerships in order to reach more hungry children.

Secondly, The Sheridan Story manages the logistics and food operations portion of the project. This includes sourcing through Second Harvest Heartland (a local foodbank 501(c)(3) that is part of the nation-wide Feeding America Network), leading food packing events, managing storage and inventory control, and delivering packaged food to schools. Our community partners then facilitate the distribution to the children in coordination with the school administration. The Sheridan Story's operational role removes logistical barriers that inhibit many in the community from joining in the fight against child hunger.

Since 2010, The Sheridan Story has distributed 44,218 pounds of food (36,849 meals) to children at no cost to them.

Each of the 5 news schools that plan to launch in the 2013-2014 school year will begin with a pilot of 50-100 children. As the school and community partners successfully implement and adjust to the program, the project will continue to be offered to more students. Full implementation of the program in the 5 schools is estimated to be completed in two years. While the 5 pilot schools gradually implement the program to capacity, we will continue program growth through phased implementation of the program in more schools, reaching more hungry children.

Please see the below excerpts from Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and the corresponding statements indicating The Sheridan Story's compliance with the 501(c)(3) status requirements.

501(c)(3):

“Corporations, and any community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes...”

Articles of Incorporation (Page 1, Article III, Paragraph 1-5):

“This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The purpose of this corporation is:

- to demonstrate the love of Jesus and replicate His model of service and sacrifice
- to fight child hunger through community and school partnerships
- to develop a network of community partners with the common goal of fighting child hunger”

501(c)(3):

“...no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual...”

Articles of Incorporation (Page 1, Article IV, Paragraph 2):

“No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in the purpose clause hereof.”

*Also see The Sheridan Story’s Conflict of Interest Policy, which is attached to this application.

501(c)(3):

“...no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation... and which does not participate in, or intervene in... any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.”

Articles of Incorporation (Page 1, Article IV, Paragraph 3):

“No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including by publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.”

Further, Section 1.501(c)(3)-1(d)2) of the regulations defines the term "charitable" as used in section 501(c)(3) of the Code as including the relief of the poor and distressed or of the underprivileged and the advancement of education.

The Sheridan Story provides non-perishable food to children living in food insecurity. Our program has no cost to the children or their families. The food is provided to the children free of charge and with no expectations or requirements, from the children or their families, to be able to participate in the program (other than a permission slip signed by their guardian). Therefore, The Sheridan Story carries our “relief of the poor and distressed or of the underprivileged”.

United States Tax Code also requires that an organization qualifying for 501(c)(3) status must not engage in any non-exempt activities. The Sheridan Story’s Articles of Incorporation - Page 1, Article IV, Paragraph 4 – states the following:

“Notwithstanding any other provisions of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future tax code, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future tax code.”

United States Tax Code also requires that an organization qualifying for 501(c)(3) status must permanently dedicate its assets to exempt purposes. The Sheridan Story’s Articles of Incorporation - Page 2, Article VII, Paragraph 2 – states the following

“Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets of the corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.”

The Sheridan Story is confident that we meet the exact purpose of the 501(c)(3) regulation. The above is a good-faith effort to demonstrate our compliance with both the specific “letter of the law” as well as the meaning of what it is to be a 501(c)(3) organization.

• Part VI - Your Members and Other Individuals and Organizations That Receive Benefits From You

1a. Provide Goods / Services to individuals

The Sheridan Story provides children with a weekend's supply of non-perishable food every Friday. Each child's guardian signs a permission slip in coordination with the child's school. The food is given to the children while they are at school to be taken home for the weekend. The food is provided to the children at no cost and with no expectations or requirements from them or their families to be able to participate in the program other than a permission slip signed by their guardian.

1b. Provide Goods / Services to organizations

The Sheridan Story is a network-based program provides two services to organizations:

- Facilitate the formation of partnerships between the community and schools.
- Manage the logistics and food operations portion of the project. The organizations provide some of the finances to cover the project and we partner with them to provide the bagged food so they can distribute it to the children at school. This includes sourcing through Second Harvest Heartland, leading food packing events, managing storage and inventory control, and delivering packaged food to schools.

• Part VIII – Your Specific Activities

4a. Fundraising Descriptions

Mail solicitations

The Sheridan Story will send, via mail, letters and brochures to previous, current, or potential donors and volunteer. We will describe our program, why we are soliciting funds, and how they can donate – either by mailing a check or online via our website.

Email solicitations

The Sheridan Story will send, via email, letters and brochures to previous, current, or potential donors and volunteers. We will describe our program, why we are soliciting funds, and how they can donate – either by mailing a check or online via our website.

Personal solicitations

The Sheridan Story will solicit funding on an individual basis. The individuals from whom we solicit funds will be higher-end donors, but also individuals who we meet at conferences (while running a booth), at speaking engagements or at volunteer events.

Foundation grant solicitations

The Sheridan Story will apply for grants administered by foundations, non-profits, and corporations. We will complete applications as required by the grantees.

Accept donations on your website

The Sheridan Story's website, www.thesheridanstory.com, has a Donate page. Our fiscal partner, The Minneapolis Foundation, currently administers our online donations. We do not currently administer online donations directly into The Sheridan Story's account as we do not yet have 501(c)(3) status and therefore do not receive tax-deductible donations. Once we have the legal status to receive tax-deductible donations, The Sheridan Story will move our online donations to be administered directly into our account through partnering with our bank, US Bank.

Receive donations from another organization's website

The Sheridan Story's fiscal partner, The Minneapolis Foundation, currently administers our online donations and donors are linked to their website to donate online to The Sheridan Story. Once we have the legal status to receive tax-deductible donations, The Sheridan Story will move our online donations to be administered directly into our account from our website through partnering with our bank, US Bank.

4d. States and local jurisdictions in which you conduct fundraising

The Sheridan Story operates only in the State of Minnesota. More specifically, we are currently only operating in Hennepin County. We don't have specific plans to move into neighboring counties, although we aren't self-restricted to Hennepin County long-term.

The Sheridan Story has a unique fundraising strategy as we both fundraise for our organization ourselves and also have other organizations who fundraise for us, in a way. Below are more details on the fundraising formats.

The Sheridan Story has a fundraising strategy where we directly solicit and administer individual and corporate donations as well as grants from foundations, corporations, and non-profits. This funding goes towards the overall cost of the organization and is a traditional form of fundraising that I expect is prevalent throughout organizations.

The Sheridan Story also forms partnerships between the community and local schools. We call these community partners “Sponsors” of the school with which they partner. Our community Sponsors (who are often religious institutions, community organizations, or sometimes companies) are responsible for the specific school that they sponsor. This includes providing volunteers and owning the relationship with the school, but also providing the funding for the portion of the program that The Sheridan Story has not covered. Therefore, these community Sponsors raise money within their organization, and provide that funding to The Sheridan Story to go towards the program expenses. The Sheridan Story may advise them on fundraising, provide advertising materials and data, and may send our Executive Director to speak at one of their events to promote our organization.

As a made-up example, if a school has 200 children signed up for the project, the cost would be around $20,000 / year (rounded for ease of demonstration). The Sheridan Story may be able to cover $10,000 of the project. The community Sponsor, let’s say it is a church, would then be responsible for the remaining $10,000. The Sponsor may already have the $10,000 in their budget, but they may need to fundraise for this specific project. The Sheridan Story may provide the Sponsor insert advertisements for their church bulletins. We may also send our Executive Director to speak during the announcements on a Sunday morning.

15. Do you have a close connection with any organizations?

The Sheridan Story has a “close connection” with Woodridge Church. Started as a project of Mill City Church, a site of Woodridge Church, The Sheridan Story shares some board members with Woodridge Church. Currently, 50% of The Sheridan Story’s Board of Directors are also Woodridge Board members, and are serving a 6-month term with The Sheridan Story to assist in advising our launch.

The Sheridan Story is in the process of growing our Board of Directors from the current 6 members to 11-15 members. Our goal is to provide a diversity of experience, backgrounds, and community involvement, intentionally seeking people not affiliated with Woodridge in order to reach those goals. The Sheridan Story aims to retain Board of Directors representation from Woodridge as they are a founding partner of the organization and have been integral in the success of The Sheridan Story to this point.

WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN 80-0919680. This EIN will identify you, your business accounts, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

When filing tax documents, payments, and related correspondence, it is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information is not correct as shown above, please make the correction using the attached tear-off stub and return it to us.

ANNUAL FILING REQUIREMENTS

Most organizations with an EIN have an annual filing requirement, even if they engage in minimal or no activity.

A. If you are tax-exempt, you may be required to file one of the following returns or notices:

Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax
Form 990-EZ, Short Form Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax
Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation
Form 990-N, e-Postcard (available online only)

Additionally, you may be required to file your annual return electronically.

If an organization required to file a Form 990, Form 990-PF, Form 990-EZ, or Form 990-N does not do so for three consecutive years, its tax-exempt status is automatically revoked as of the due date of the third return or notice.

Please refer to www.irs.gov/990filing for the most current information on your filing requirements.

B. If you are not tax-exempt, you may be required to file one of the following returns:

Form 1120, U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return
Form 1041, U.S. Income Tax Return for Estates and Trusts
Form 1065, U.S. Return of Partnership Income

Please refer to Publication 1635, Understanding Your EIN, for more information about which forms you may be required to file.

APPLYING FOR TAX-EXEMPT STATUS

Receiving an EIN from the IRS is not the same thing as receiving IRS recognition of tax-exempt status. To apply for formal recognition of tax-exempt status, most organizations will need to complete either Form 1023, Application for Recognition Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or Form 1024, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(a). Submit the completed form, all applicable attachments and the required user fee to:

Internal Revenue Service
PO Box 12192
Covington, KY 41012-0192

Publication 557, Tax Exempt Status for Your Organization, has details on the application process, as well as information on returns you may need to file.
