SHERIDAN STORY
FIGHTING CHILD HUNGER

2016-2017 SCHOOL YEAR ANNUAL REPORT

NOTE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Just a few years ago, The Sheridan Story was working in just one school serving about 300 kids a week. We then had an idea to expand to multiple schools where organizations would partner with each of them to build a relationship, run the program, and provide funding.

This, we thought, would allow us to make a significant impact on child hunger in our community. Over 200,000 kids in Minnesota don't always know if they will have food to eat. We weren't, and still aren't, okay with that.

My wife and I decided I should leave my corporate job to launch this idea, but we had no clue of the amazing support we would find from all of you.

Due to the incredible partnerships we discovered in the community, The Sheridan Story has taken off beyond anything we could have expected.

I consider it a privilege to be doing this work alongside each of you. Thank you and I look forward to us doing even more to fight child hunger!

OUR MISSION FIGHT CHILD HUNGER THROUGH COMMUNITY AND SCHOOL PARTNERSHIPS

sheridanstory.org

Over 200,000 children in Minnesota live in food insecurity – they don't always know if they will have food for their next meal. In order to fight this devastating reality, The Sheridan Story focuses on the weekend food gap, when children aren't able to receive free and reduced meal programs at school.

In order to most effectively fight against the widespread and disheartening problem of children living in food insecurity, a coordinated community response is required. Therefore, The Sheridan Story is not simply a typical "backpack program", working in a few schools mostly under our own efforts, staffing, volunteers, and fundraising. Instead, The Sheridan Story operates as a methodical and coordinated effort to equip the community with the tools and resources required to make an effective and significant impact on child hunger.
