school to access meal programs. Through a network of over 600 partner organizations, Every Meal provides thousands of children with the food they need to learn and grow.

A differentiator of Every Meal is the quality of food provided. Over 99% of our food is purchased from over a dozen local, national, and global vendors. Food items and brands are determined through guidance from an on-staff registered dietician who analyzes nutritional contents and taste to ensure that the food is both nutritious and delicious.

Investing in more warehouse space and demand planning technology has allowed Every Meal to purchase a greater variety of high-quality food while leveraging economies of scale to reduce costs. These efforts have resulted in a wider range of food options available to children including regionally-specific beans, specialized grains and flours, and favorable vegetables and fruits for various cultural cooking needs. These investments have allowed Every Meal to improve the selection of foods provided children and their families, ensuring that the food they receive is nutritious, delicious, and culturally and situationally relevant.

Every Meal continued the innovations and program expressions instigated by the COVID-19 pandemic and the killing of George Floyd. Food distribution methods were adapted to reflect the various learning models that schools implemented, and additional community sites such as the YMCA, libraries, parks, worship centers, and fire stations continued to provide food access for children. Every Meal invested in program support capacity to ensure adequate resources could be provided to schools, whose needs became more complex as learning models and operational demands changed rapidly.

Other innovative programs, like the Grow and Give program, allowed Every Meal to distribute fresh produce to children and their families. Produce grown in the Every Meal garden was combined with produce donated by individuals and Grow and Give partner organizations to be distributed weekly to children in Roseville, Minnesota.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

The Organization monitored compliance with the conflict of interest policy by reviewing, contemporaneously, all potential conflicts of interest at governance meetings and staff daily activities and applying the policy to address any actual conflicts of interest that are identified. As Section 6.2 of this policy states, staff conflicts of interest are disclosed to the Executive Director, "(or if she or he is the one with the conflict, then to the Board Chair), who shall bring the matter to the attention of the Board. Disclosure involving directors should be made to the Board Chair, (or if she or he is the one with the conflict, then to the Board Treasurer) who shall bring these matters to the board. Section 6.3 continues "the board shall determine whether a conflict exists and in the case of an existing conflict, whether the contemplated transaction may be authorized as just, fair, and reasonable to Every Meal."

As Section 2 of this policy states, this policy applies "not only to directors and officers, but to all employees who can influence the actions of Every Meal. For example, this would include all who make purchasing decisions, all persons who might be described as 'management personnel,' and anyone who has proprietary information concerning Every Meal." In practice, the policy applies to all members of the Board of Directors and typically applies to staff that are manager level and above.

Restrictions imposed on a person with a conflict are identified in Section 6.1 - include fully disclosing the conflict of interest and is excluded from the discussion and approval of such transaction.
